Beste Medelanders.

Even though we didn't publish a magazine in August, our Members went ahead and had some good fun just the same.

I also hope that those Members, who went and saw André Rieu in the Cinema, enjoyed it as much as I did. (Although I saw him live on Saturday with my daughter as well.)

The Ice Skating event with Armanda's "erwtensoepe" (pea soup), was a popular and well attended event. Good to see so many orange shirts on the ice.

Now focusing on the upcoming events.

Firstly we will first have our AGM in September. We want to present our proposed constitution to you, that will incorporate all the changes that we legally had to make.

A copy of the new constitution can be found on our website, or I can email a copy to you. Please make sure you review it, prior to the AGM.

As during the AGM, we will be asking our Membership to adapt this updated version, to keep inline with the regulations.

As far as the Committee elections are concerned, I am still looking for additional Committee Members, as we presently have some that will no longer make themselves available for re-election.

If you want to help us to look after our Members, please let me know.

Have a great a month.

Cheers,

Eric van Waaijenburg.
President.

The Seniors' Club enjoyed an afternoon with André Rieu.

Sunday the 29th of July the Senior' Club Members had a enjoyable time watching André Rieu's 2018 Maastricht Concert: "Amore my tribute to Love" on the large Imax screen at the HOYTS Cinema at the Carousel Shopping Centre in Cannington. The Amore Concert was recorded in July 2018 in the beautiful city of Maastricht on the Vrijthof.

What a great experience and thoroughly enjoyable event, it gave the feeling that we were part of the audience at the Vrijthof. The beautiful decorations, seeing the concert goers enjoying the evening on the terraces and in the cafés. You were literally transported in mind to the Vrijthof and thus able to thoroughly enjoy the concert because you felt you were part of it.

André Rieu and his Johann Strauss orchestra played some incredible pieces, which stirred the emotion in the audience. André also performed some very special music pieces this time, such as the "Agnus Dei" composed by Mozart, but musically changed to a Requiem with the words "miserere nobis", (have mercy on us) to "dona eis requiem", (grant them rest).

He also performed: "You Raise Me Up", officially written by Josh Groban, which was beautifully performed by his soloist.

Congratulations to Henk Oorschot and the Committee for organising this special event.
Peter and Anne Rietveld.

More André Rieu

Neerlandia Members at the André Rieu Concert in the HOYTS Cinema in Cannington.

Many Neerlandia Members enjoyed an amazing Andre Rieu Concert, recorded in Maastricht and shown at the HOYTS cinema on Sunday 29th of July. It was as if you were in Maastricht yourself, it felt so real and you were really soaking in the great atmosphere, as if you were at a big party in Limburg.

André Rieu will be touring Australia towards the end of the year to perform his Australian Christmas Concert and there will be a recording of it shown on Sunday 16th December. We will be able to do this again for you! See more details below.

Editorial.

Many members told me that they really missed an August issue of our Neerlandia Magazine. However, this was very much appreciated by your Editor. It was just what the doctor ordered, or in plain language, what the body and the mind needs occasionally. I love producing our Magazine, it keeps my mind occupied. It also prevents me from becoming bored, as I am not a TV person, besides watching the news and some sports. This month long break was really appreciated.

I am also a soccer fan from way back and I enjoyed watching the World Cup that was recently played in Russia. The Netherlands were not there, so I was barracking for our neighbours, the "Rode Duivels". So close! The André Rieu Concert at the HOYTS in Carousel was great entertainment and to those that did not go, you don't know what a great show you missed. Be there in December!!

Stuff Dutch People Like

"Stuff Dutch People Like" is a column written by an Expatriate living in the Netherlands.

This amusing column observes the Dutch in their everyday life. We hope that you enjoy reading "Stuff Dutch People Like" as much as we do. The blog is available via the internet.

Bring your own Cake.

If you've spent any time in a Dutch Office you are sure to quickly notice an abundance of confectionery goods. The larger the office, the more often cake will mysteriously appear around the coffee machine. The workings of a generous boss with a sweet tooth? Nope, it's the endearing Dutch tradition of eating cake on your birthday, no matter what your age. Sounds normal enough, right? But the Dutch twist on this tradition is that you are expected to buy and bring your own cake to the party! And here you were thinking that birthdays were all about you! Guess again!

In the land of the Dutchies, it is never appropriate to assume someone has brought you cake on your special day. More importantly do not think you can quietly avoid this tradition at work. If it's your birthday, the office Manager, Human Relations Department and even the Director is certain to know your b-day (a work-related birthday calendar in their toilet??) and you will certainly not make new friends or impress the colleagues by attempting to usurp this ever important socio-cultural norm. Bring in your cake, take in all the gefeliciteerds, do a lot of 3-kisses, and enjoy yourself!

The standard Dutch birthday cake is normally a pastry tart topped with assorted fruit and whipped cream, commonly referred to as Vlaai. On birthdays, a variety of cakes are appropriate, including appeltaart (apple pie), Limburgse vlaai, peperkoek (gingerbread) and even spekkoek (layered cake from Indonesia).

Not a great baker? Not to worry – there are a multitude of Dutch businesses that are supported solely by the fact that every working citizen has to buy at least one birthday cake a year.

Do the math folks, that's over 10 million Vlaai (or Cakes) a year!

The Neerlandia Juniors' Club

Our Electronics Day.

The last Electronics and Software event was a great success, we finished assembling the 3D printer and powered it up for the first time and to our joy, the printer switched on without any problems. The only thing that is yet to be done, is to calibrate the 3D printer before we are going to produce something in 3D print. We also got a few new visitors, including some Members from the Rhein Donau Club Inc. Slowly but surely the group of people interested in the Electronics Club is growing.

Ice Skating.

On Sunday the 5th of August, a great group of about 50 kids and parents descended on the Xtreme Ice Arena in Mirrabooka. Most, if not all, were dressed in Orange.

Authentic Pea Soup from Armanda's Kitchen as well as Hot Chocolate were offered, which have become a regular treat.

A few present, had not stood on Ice for 15 or 20 years or longer, but they soon found their skating balance and all went well.

Before long some clocked rounds of 32 seconds. (It is very clear that Ice Skating runs through the veins of Dutch people and combined with the Dutch Pea (Snert) Soup and Hot Chocolate, success is guaranteed.

That's why we organize this event every 6 months. And even more often in the future, if more people put their hands up in helping us out and make the Neerlandia Junior Club grow and prosper.

Machiel.

Neerlandia Seniors' Club

Welcome to the Neerlandia Seniors' Club page.

When you are reading this Magazine, we will have enjoyed our bus trip to Mandurah and Ravenswood and we will be telling you all about it in the October Magazine.

What an amazing show of Andre Rieu in Maastricht, enjoyed by about 100 Members at the Hoyts Cinema on Sunday 29th of July. It was as if we were all in Maastricht. All made possible through the Sponsorship of Neerlandia. Being a Member, pays off !!!

We now have 70 regular Members in our Seniors Club and most of them are enjoying a great lunch every fortnight and playing various games like billiards, carpet bowls, sjoelbakken, board games and all sorts of card games. The great thing is that we are all enjoying each others company, which is so valuable when you get older in life.

We must keep on meeting.

SO BRING A FRIEND ALONG AND JOIN US HAVING A BALL !!!

Formally Known as Dutch Aged Care. (DACWA)

Volunteer Training.

In May our Volunteers attended a training session about “Nutrition”.

We were so fortunate that Pica held this training, as she is a qualified Dietician and she has a good knowledge of the Aged Care sector.

Lots of questions were asked and suitable answers were given and we all know a lot more about: “What to eat as we get older”.

The training was followed by a “healthy” lunch and we all used the opportunity to catch up with each other. It was a worthwhile training session.

Tuesday midday. My CURA helper has just left and the house looks lovely and clean again.

I have so many things to do. But the Crochet bug is biting so hard, so, yes I have decided....

On the YOU tube I found so many lovely patterns for a poncho. And a tutorial too. It did not take me long to fall in love with THE ONE.

And I am going to make that one....

I have more hobbies. And one of them is emailing with overseas friends and relatives.

Yes, the computer is a life line for many elderly people.

I wonder if the Government realises that.

I also like writing about my childhood. These things are still vibrant in my mind. Places, colours and even smells come to me. My parents had a deli shop and the smells of all the cheeses and sausages...Mmmmm...

Through CURA, I also have help with the gardens and next week the window cleaner will come.

I often have a guest to join me in a cup of coffee Well, who could refuse a cup of Dutch Coffee? No one ever does. As long as it is after 10.30 am, you are welcome too.

I have found my pacifier, (in this case my Crochet hook) so here I go.

CURA is now recruiting Volunteers for our Community Visitor Scheme.

Our volunteers visit elderly people either, in their own homes, or in residential aged care. They bring friendship and happiness to the people they visit and they receive the same in return.

When you are a CVS Volunteer, you receive an orientation, access to an online training program, three in-house training sessions per year and reimbursement for travel expenses.

It also is an opportunity to have a reference when applying for work.

If you are looking for a meaningful opportunity to volunteer an hour every fortnight, please phone us on 9382 1983 or email us at cvs@cura-inhomecare.org.au.

We would love to hear from you.

Neerlandia Members visit Papua New Guinea

Group foto from l.t.r.: Vera, Tony, Henri, Margaret, Judy, Bruni, Henk, Gerry and Camille. (the girl in blue saluting, is a Crew Member).

When a few Neerlandia Members decided that they were going on a cruise from Brisbane to Papua New Guinea and adjoining Islands from the 28th of May until the 9th of June, others joined as well with the end result that 9 Members finished going together, had a ball and following are some of the highlights. Most of the group arrived in Brisbane a few days earlier, stayed in the same hotel and did some sightseeing around Brisbane. Nearby was a Ferry Terminal and it is a great way to see the City, as you can hop off and back on again, whenever you want to.

Three of us also made a bus tour to Mt Cootha, where we enjoyed the view and had an ice-cream. Then the Cruise. We were picked up from our hotel to board the Pacific Aria. We soon settled into our respective cabins and explored the various bars and eating places on the ship. We usually gathered for breakfast in the "Pantry". (I bet Henri really misses it.)

During the day we did our own thing and caught up with each other whenever we wanted to, as you can see Bruni, Camille and Margaret doing dance-exercises, great fun to watch as well. There were films, lectures and many other activities as well on the sea days.

The first port of call was Alotau, where we did a tour of their Cultural Centre, where there were lots of different Dance Groups. We also talked to the locals and visited the various stalls. Bruni and the men set off to Milne Bay where they visited the Australian War Memorial and the War Graves, which they found rather interesting, although the graves were rather neglected.

Next port of call was to be Kitava, but unfortunately, there was quite a big swell, which made it too dangerous for the tenders to take us to the shore, so another sea day.

Rabaul was the next port we visited, welcoming us was a group of Dancers from the island, who performed tirelessly, while the passengers disembarked

We had a private tour in an air-conditioned bus, which was great. We were taken to a seismographic station, which monitors the active volcano Tavurvuvu. Tremors occur quite frequently. We could tell this from the state of the roads, which were full of irregularities and dusty from the volcanic ash.

We visited the hot springs near the base of the volcano and the water was indeed boiling hot with steam rising from it. (no swimming)

We were always glad to get away from the heat and be back onboard in the lovely air-conditioning and to enjoy a nice coffee or something alcoholic. The cocktails were great!!!

Neerlandia Members visit Papua New Guinea

Kiriwina Island was the next place we visited, going ashore again by tender. No organized tour, but plenty of local guides, who could take you on a walking tour of their Village. There were also beautifully decorated longboats, whose owners, for a fee, would take you for a paddle. This is if you were brave enough, as the boats were long and narrow and very low in the water. There were also usual stalls with carved wooden items, woven baskets etc. all around.

Conflict Island was the last of the islands we visited, again tenders and we landed at a long, long pontoon, which swayed in the water and it was not easy to walk on for us, it looked like it was put together with lego pieces. When you finally reached the shore, you sunk ankle deep in the very coarse sand.

Needless to say I did not venture far. After a trudge through the sand, the others reached the site where the glass bottom boat was anchored and they enjoyed a leisurely trip to view the coral and the tropical fish.

All the islands we visited were pristine, no rubbish anywhere, no cigarette buds, no bikes, very few cars and the occasional pushbike.

Unfortunately, that day our Tony was not well and spent the remainder of the trip in the ship's hospital.

He was well looked after and we even managed to play a game of "klaverjas" with him at this bedside, which relieved his boredom a bit. Once we landed in Brisbane, he had to stay a few more days in hospital, but after a few days he was allowed to fly home and he is getting better, with the new treatment he is on.

The rest of us enjoyed the last couple of days at sea and all too soon we were back in Brisbane and were homeward bound.

Now you have a real choice with in-home care

Many people love the security and familiarity of living in their own home. Now the Federal Government allows you to choose the in-home care support service so you can continue to live an independent and active life.

As an accredited provider, we have nearly 30 years experience in providing an extensive range of in-home services for the elderly. We'll work with you – and your family – to see which of our services will be most beneficial to your circumstances.

You might need help with activities such as:

- shopping
- transport
- medical appointments
- cleaning
- personal care
- assistance with meal preparation
- or just having a chat with someone over a cuppa

Our clients come from many different ethnic backgrounds and a diverse variety of lifestyles – we provide culturally specific services and treat them all with the same degree of respect and dignity.

The first step to getting CURA's individual in-home care is to call and have a chat with a member of our Care Team.

If you are not eligible for Government funding, we can still assist you in planning for private services, no matter what your age.

Card Club Sunday Drive Reports

The July Sunday Drive Report, by Pieter (L.M.)

This Sunday Drive was held on Sunday the 1st of July. With a few people away or ill, we still managed to have 24 playing Members and 2 non-playing Members, which meant, we just had enough for 6 tables.

Thea Gorter was the non-playing Member and she took care of the washing and the cleaning up.

On arrival, Dutch "Appeltaart" with cream and a cup of freshly brewed coffee was waiting as usual and that was very much appreciated.

The Lunch was very good once again.

When the scorecards came in, they were checked and the three Prize-winners were announced.

The competition for the prizes was wide open with a fair margin separating the 3 placegetters.

These were:

1st Prize Freda Hovingh	7429 points
2nd Prize Piet Segers	7237points

Prize winners l.t.r.: Piet Segers, 2nd Prize; Freda Hovingh, 1st Prize and Jan Lagerwey, 3rd Prize.

3rd Prize Jan Lagerwey	6905 points
--	--------------------

The August Drive.

After weeks of extreme wet and cold weather, it was not surprising, that the turnout was less then usual. Nonetheless, we still had 23 people who attended the August Sunday Drive.

This resulted in 5 tables, which amounts to 20 players. We had two non-playing Members and one reserve, which was Piet Segers. The problem with having one player too many was soon solved as the two Peters, Leeftang and Segers, shared, by playing 2 games each.

On arrival, the players were greeted with a brewed cup of Coffee and a piece of "Gevulde Speculaas", (Almond Filled Speculaas). Something different.

At 11am sharp, the games started and after playing 2 games, lunch was served.

Armanda herself was in Karratha, with the result that the Lunch was good, but not as sumptuous as usual.

Let's hope Armanda will be back for our September Drive.

After a fierce battle the score sheets came in, which are checked as usual, before the winners are announced.

The last scoresheet that came in surprised everyone, as it produced the first two placegetters.

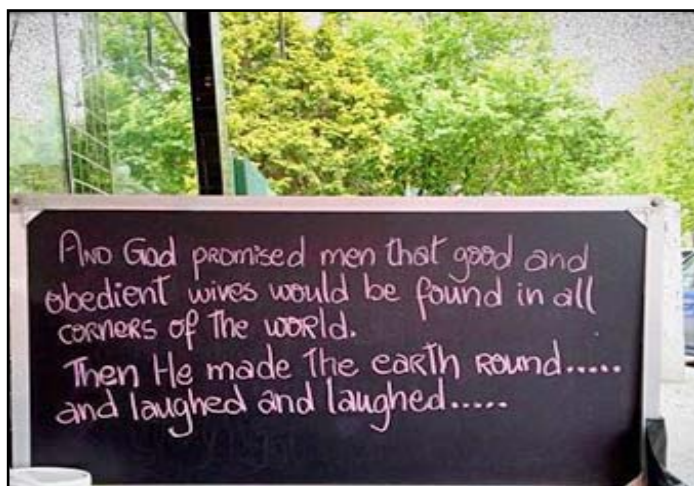

Those two players scored 5 Marsen in one game, which resulted in a massive score of almost 2500 points. (Very hard to beat)

They overall results was as follows:

1st Prize Nel v.d. Aakster	7429 points
2nd Prize Con v.d. Putten	7237 points
3rd Prize Gerda van Noort	6905 points

Prize winners l.t.r.: Gerda van Noort, 3rd Prize; Nel v.d. Aakster, 1st Prize and Con v.d. Putten, 2nd Prize.

May a little bit of Humour light up your Day

Men and Woman, a good look at them.

A bookseller conducting a market survey asked a woman: "Which book has helped you most in your life?"

The woman said "My husband's cheque book!!"

A man was granted two wishes by God. He asked for the Best Drink & the Best Woman ever. The next moment he got a bottle of Mineral Water & Mother Teresa appeared.

There are 3 kinds of men in this world. Some remain single and make wonders happen. Some have girlfriends and see wonders happen. The rest get married and wonder what happened!

COOL MESSAGE BY A WIFE: "Dear Mother-in-law, don't teach me how to handle my children. I am living with one of yours and he needs a lot of improvement!?"

A lady says to her Doctor: "My husband has a habit of talking in his sleep! What should I give him to cure it?"

The doctor replies: "Give him an opportunity to speak, when he's awake!"

When a married man says: "I WILL THINK ABOUT IT" - what he really means is that he doesn't know his wife's opinion yet.

THE 100 MPH Goat.

Two Tennessee rednecks are out hunting and as they are walking along, they come upon a huge hole in the ground. They approach it and are amazed by the size of it.

The first hunter says: "Wow, that's some hole, I can't even see the bottom. I wonder how deep it is."

The second hunter says: "I don't know, let's throw something down and listen and see how long it takes to hit bottom."

The first hunter says: "There's this old car transmission over there, give me a hand and we'll throw it in and see".

So they pick it up and carry it over, count one, two, three and throw it in the hole.

As they are standing there listening and looking over the edge and they hear a rustling in the brush behind them.

As they turn around they see a goat come crashing through the brush, run up to the hole and with no hesitation, jump in head first.

While they are standing there, looking at each other, looking in the hole and trying to figure out what that was all about, an old farmer walks up. "Say there," says the farmer, "you fellers didn't happen to see my goat around here anywhere, did you?"

The first hunter says: " Funny you should ask, but we were just standing here a minute ago and a goat came running out of the bushes, doing about a hundred miles an hour and jumped headfirst into this hole here!"

The old farmer said: "That's impossible. I had him roped to a car transmission!"

Midnight Romance.

After 40 years of marriage, a couple was lying in bed one evening, when the missus felt her husband begin to fondle her in ways he hadn't done in quite some time.

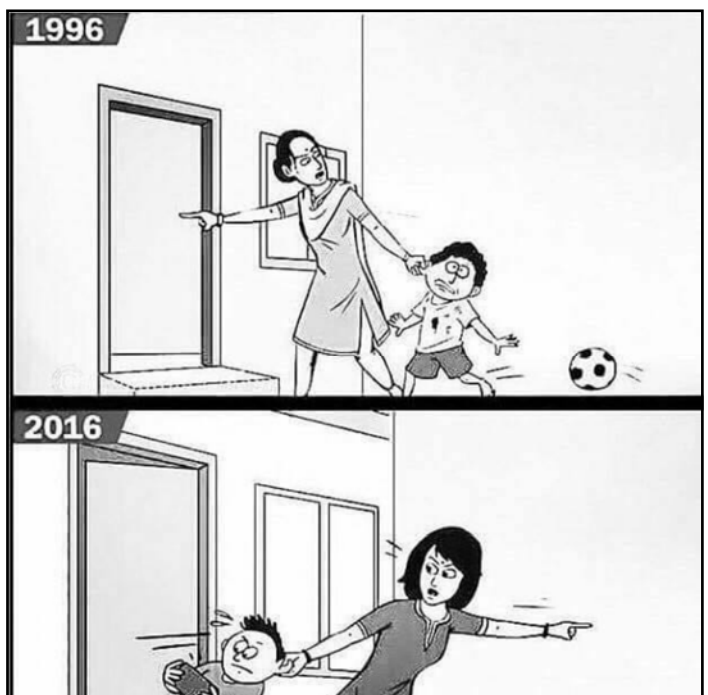

It almost tickled as his fingers started at her neck, and then began moving down past the small of her back. He then caressed her shoulders and neck, slowly worked his hand down over her breasts, stopping just over her lower stomach.

He then proceeded to place his hand on her left inner arm, caressed past the side of her breast again, working down her side, passed gently over her buttock and down her leg to her calf.

Then, he proceeded up her inner thigh, stopping just at the uppermost portion of her leg. He continued in the same manner on her right side, then suddenly stopped, rolled over and became silent.

As she had become quite aroused by this caressing, she asked in a loving voice: 'Honey, that was wonderful. Why did you stop?'

'I found the remote', he mumbled.

The lively green City of Weert

Flag and Coat of Arms of Weert.

Weert is a City in the Dutch province of Limburg and it has almost 50.000 inhabitants. It is one of the largest Cities in Limburg.

It is a lively old City, conveniently located on the border of North-Brabant, South-Limburg and Belgium and is often called: “The gate of Limburg”.

In the vicinity, there are beautiful nature areas, where you can make lovely walking and cycling tours, as well as ride on horseback.

History:

Weert was first mentioned in a document in 1062. In that time it belonged to the County of Horn. This county was first governed from Horn, but later Weert became the capital City. From that time onwards, Weert got an urban update with canals, ramparts and gates. In 1414 Weert received market rights. Around 1500 the City experienced its golden age. Due to the disastrous 80-years war, Weert declined to become a country Town. A recovery began after the construction of the Zuid-Willemsvaart in 1825.

Tourist attractions:

The St. Martinus Church dates from 1456 and with its 72m high tower it dominates the City and is well visible from all directions. The Church has beautiful stained-glass windows and a striking interior light. In the seventies, unique 15th and 16th century ceiling paintings were uncovered and restored. The Church was built in a late Gothic style with Rhenish and Moran influences. Besides the St. Michael Church in Zwolle, it is the only original stone-vaulted Hall Church in the Netherlands.

St. Martinus Church.

Clay Pipe Kiln.

Kleipijpoven (Clay Pipe Kiln).

Built in 1856, this oven is the only remaining clay pipe kiln in Western Europe.

A large assembly of clay pipes, that were made here, can be seen in the Municipality Museum.

This Museum, also exhibits artefacts that were from obtained from the Dutch Order of Friars. It has one of the largest and finest collections of ancient art of Limburg.

Nature:

Weert has been voted the greenest City in the Netherlands. This is not only due to the many green areas in the City itself, but also to the surrounding nature reserves, which are nice quiet places to take a walk or go cycling.

Guided walking Tours.

Tourists exploring the vast Nature Reserve on horseback.

The lively green City of Weert

Recreation area “De IJzeren Man”. (The Iron Man.)

Their best Nature Reserve is located on the borders of Belgium, North-Brabant and Limburg. It is the remnant of a swampy area with some higher, dry sand ridges rising above it. After partial reclamation it has become a mosaic of different landscapes with marshes, dunes, forests, moors, valleys and agricultural areas.

Hikers, bikers, horseback riders and mountain bikers can explore at their own pace, along set routes.

The IJzeren Man is another recreation area and part of Kempenbroek. It is named after a lake that originated in 1912 in a sand quarry. The area has a subtropical swimming pool, a petting Zoo, a Nature Camping area and a Visitors Centre, where staff and volunteers inform visitors about Nature and Geology with educational materials.

Children are learning all about nature in the “Iron Man” recreation area.

Guided tours and Walking tours. During a guided City walk you can get acquainted with the past and present of Weert. The walk takes about 2 hours. Besides a City walk, there are several other hikes, such as a culinary walk and a walk to the urn field.

Covered wagon ride. Take a wagon ride and enjoy the rustic surroundings of Weert. The wagon has space for up to 18 people and has an experienced facilitator.

Museum De Tiendschuur. This Museum houses a vast historical collection of Weert, its history from the Stone Age, Late Bronze and Compiled from the Internet by Pieter Leeftang.

The Boat harbor is situated close to the centre of the City

CODEBREAKER PUZZLE

A Codebreaker is a crossword puzzle with no clues! Every letter of the alphabet has been replaced by a number.

For this puzzle the first two letters are revealed. Start with entering these letters throughout the puzzle and then start guessing your first word or letter. Use a pencil to start, then if it does not work out, you can erase it and start again.

Some letters, e.g. the letters E and A and S occur more often than others e.g. the letter Z.

The last Codebreaker was a bit of a challenge, but not too difficult. The first words should have been Blubber, Eventful, followed by Elbows. But once there, you were on your way.

The letter codes for last month's Codebreaker was as follows:

A=14; B=23; C=6; D=17;
E=12; F=11; G=9; H=21; I=5;
J=13; K=26; L=10; M=20;
